Please Note:

In the DVV clarification, the sanction letters of selected teachers have been sought. Here, we would like to clarify that, as mentioned on page no. 1, the teaching appointments in the college are full-time, permanent and approved by the affiliating university. As per our understanding, in the complete recruitment and appointment process, there is no sanction letter in the name of a teacher. Instead, the sanction letters are documents provided by the government showing category/roster wise vacancies. Then after selection, appointment orders are given and later, appointees are approved by the affiliating University. Subsequently, after successful completion of probation period, the services are likely to be continued.

But, to justify our opinion, we have provided/attached affiliating University's approval; the appointment orders given at the time of joining are already provided (for now, link to the documents is given on last page of this file).
